ABOUT TIFFANY

Tiffany is experienced in defined contribution and defined benefit plans and is committed to helping plan participants reach their financial wellness goals. She holds individual consultation meetings, webinars, and on-site education sessions to encourage, educate, and motivate individuals, and to help guide them on their path to retirement. Her professionalism and energetic personality help her easily build rapport with participants.

Tiffany joined Prudential in October 2009 and transitioned to Empower in April 2022. She has more than 15 years in the retirement and investment industry and 20 years in banking and finance. She previously worked as a national phone-based retirement representative in the Omaha area.

Tiffany received a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology with a minor in communication studies from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. She currently maintains the FINRA Series 6 registration and the Series 63 state securities license, is Life Insurance licensed, and is a Certified Retirement Counselor[®].

"I'm passionate about my work, skills, and expertise. I am excited and committed to connecting with Nebraska Medicine's participants to help them prepare for what's next by focusing on financial wellness in a holistic manner."
